

Basic Assessment Report: Saldhana Sick Bay Facility

Project Summary:

The Saldhana Military base was in need of a new sick bay facility. A single building with an administrative section (nursing officer in charge), four rooms for medical officers, a single room for a nursing practitioner, an observation room, a clinic, reception and waiting room, DOTS clinic, a pharmacy that will have reception and dispensing cubicles, private counselling area and a dispensary, a single room for a psychologist with an adjacent playroom, two room for social workers and a waiting room that will be shared with the psychologist, a single room for physiotherapy, a dental surgery with its own reception and switchboard, an area for a data capturing clerk and filing! archive area for oral health records. Two dental surgeries, an oral health office and sterilising room. For patient administration a single room for a case manager and another two room for patient data capturing and a filing room! archive of patient files. There will be a functional support area comprised of a stationery store, a cleanings materials store, general store, office for a logistical clerk, medical waste store, linen store, oral health storeroom, staff lounge and kitchen and tea kitchen. The nursing and medical care will comprise of a resuscitation room, sluice room, dressing room and a plaster of paris room.

FOOTPRINT Environmental Services were appointed and successfully concluded an assessment report in terms of the Environmental Impact Assessment Regulations, 2010, promulgated in terms of the National Environmental Management Act, 1998 (Act No.107 of 1998)

Client:

Department of Public Works on behalf of the Department of Defence